

8th Anglican Jewish Commission meeting

Dublin, Ireland

31 March -3 April 2014

Because there was no communique issued at this meeting, this note is intended as an aide memoire of key points. It will be placed alongside the communiques of other meetings.

1. Participants in the meeting:
  - Delegation of the Chief Rabbinate of Israel:
Rabbi Dr Rasson Arussi; Rabbi Professor Daniel Sperber; Rabbi Avraham Steinberg;
Rabbi David Rosen; Mr Oded Wiener
  - Anglican delegation: Most Revd Michael Jackson; Rt Revd Suheil Dawani; Dr Clare Amos; Dr Jane Clements; Revd Dr Toby Howarth
2. Delegates stayed at the Mespil hotel, Dublin, and held their discussions at Terenure Synagogue.
3. Topic of the meeting – ‘Memory, Community and Identity’. Papers were presented by Archbishop Michael Jackson and Rabbi David Rosen.
4. As well as discussion of the papers and matters of common concern participants in the dialogue visited the Irish Jewish Museum, the Chester Beatty Library and the Guinness Museum.
5. The delegations were honoured to be hosted by Michael Higgins, President of Ireland, at the Aras (President’s Residence) and the Very Revd Dermot Dunne, Dean of Christ Church at St Ann’s Parish Centre.