January 8 – 15, US

Three AJC Regional offices in the US hosted me in January.

In Miami, I addressed a dinner meeting of the local Muslim Jewish Advisory Council on January 8th; a Catholic-Jewish Breakfast meeting the next morning with Archbishop Wenski.

The main event was a well-attended meeting of the local AJC Marshall Society Lunch where I spoke on the topic "Is Religion the Problem or the Solution".

On Thursday January 10th I continued on to Atlanta. A courtesy visit was paid to Archbishop Wilton Gregory, and in the evening the local AJC director Dov Wilker interviewed me on my work at the Atlanta AJC's 75th Anniversary gala event.

Over the Shabbat I was scholar-in-residence at Congregation She'arith Israel, speaking on Friday night on Relations between the Catholic Church and the Jewish People/State of Israel, which was also attended by Catholic leaders: and at Shabbat lunch time on AJC's role in new interfaith initiatives from the Arab Muslim world.

My visit culminated in Sarasota where in addition to parlor meetings, I addressed the major educational luncheon event of the AJC office on Catholic-Jewish relations and my relationships with three pontiffs.

Rabbi David Rosen presents "A Jewish perspective on the SDG Goals"

Rabbi Rosen listens to other faith leaders after completing his remarks at the Vatican conference

(7 March 2019 | Vatican City) Rabbi David Rosen [Co-President of Religions for Peace] presented "A Jewish perspective on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)" at the recent Vatican conference convened by H.H. Pope Francis entitled "Religions and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): Listening to the cry of the earth and the poor."

Rabbi Rosen indicates that "caring for the well-being of all, as summarized in the SDGs, is fundamental to the understanding in the Torah (the Jewish Bible) of what it means to be human, created in a divine image."

He continued to explain how, in the Jewish tradition, human beings are tenants on this earth and are responsible for caring for it, as it will inevitably return to its Creator.

We invite you to learn more by listening to his complete remarks on this panel, an interview regarding his meeting with H.H. Pope Francis, and reading his remarks on the opening of the Vatican Archives during the period of the Shoah.
